

VISITING SCHOLARS PROGRAM – REQUIRED MATERIALS:

1. Application Information: Applicants will be asked to enter the following information:

- Basic identity information (name, date of birth, citizenship, addresses etc.)
- Current position (job title, university, field, sub-field)
- Education (degrees, subject, year awarded)
- Miscellaneous questions (are you applying for funding from other organizations; have you applied for a HYI scholarship before; have you been issued a Harvard ID before; have you been a visiting scholar in the US in the past 2 years)
- Title of proposed research project
- The name(s) of 1-2 Faculty members at Harvard University and/or any other major university in the United States with whom you wish to consult during the stay of the fellowship. It is not necessary to contact faculty during the application process.
- Foreign travel (only for long-term stays, do not list vacations or short trips for conferences)
- Languages (list native language, indicate level of English and any other languages spoken)

2. CV and Research Plan:

Applicants will be asked to upload the following documents (in English):

- A CV (curriculum vitae), in English, which must include:
 - Honors (previous fellowships, scholarships, grants and other honors)
 - Employment (All positions held, academic or other, in chronological order, with dates. Include the date from which you have held your present faculty position)
 - Publications (please list titles in the original language as well as English)
- Research Plan (3-5 pages, in English)
 - What is the subject of your research plan? Scholarships are intended for original, publishable research (It is not necessary that the research be completed during the year at Harvard). The scholarship is not intended for the compilation of textbooks or the writing of general surveys of your field. Give a description in English in about 3-5 pages, explaining your research plans at Harvard University and/or another major university.

3. Recommendation letters:

Three recommendation letters (in English) are required, one of which must be from the applicant's adviser or the person most familiar with his/her scholarly work. Applicants cannot upload their recommendation letters. Rather, letters should be sent directly from the writer to the candidate's international or foreign affairs office. The office staff will attach the 3 recommendation letters to the candidate's online account. Applicants cannot view the letters in the online system.

4. Institutional Approval Form:

Signed by the President, Vice-Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculty or other appropriate administrative officer of the applicant's sponsoring university. Must be uploaded by the foreign affairs/international office.
