

Module overview

Foundation course modules

Compulsory foundation course modules	Module	Abbreviation	ECTS
A: Social Work as a discipline and profession	History of Social Work as institutional support	A1	6
	Social Work theories	A2	6
B: Professional understanding and shaping of development processes	Individuation and socialisation	B1	6
	Communication as a central component in Social Work	B2	6
C: Professional organisation in social inequality contexts	Modernisation and social inequality as prerequisites for Social Work	C1	6
D: Social Work in a welfare state	Social Work in the conflicting areas of law and justice	D1	6
Interdisciplinary context studies	Ethics	IKET	2
	Politics	IKPO	2
Social and personal skills	Group coaching	SSK	2
Practical training	Practical module 1, incl. elements accompanying the practical training (PRE1–4)	PM1	29
Written work	Seminar paper	SEMA	2

Main course modules

Compulsory main course modules	Module	Abbreviation	ECTS
A: Social Work as a discipline and profession	Social Work theories: the relationship between discipline, profession and ethics (field of study: Social Work)	A3 SA	6
	Social Work theories: the relationship between discipline, profession and ethics (field of study: Social Pedagogy)	A3 SP	6
B: Professional understanding and shaping of development processes	Development processes of individuals within their social environments (field of study: Social Work)	B3 SA	6
	Development processes of individuals within their social environments (field of study: Social Pedagogy)	B3 SP	6
C: Professional organisation in social inequality contexts	Social Work organisations	C2 SA, SP	6
	Processes of change in social problem areas	C3 SA, SP	6
D: Social Work in a welfare state	Welfare state and social economy (field of study: Social Work)	D2 SA	6
	Welfare state and social economy (field of study: Social Pedagogy)	D2 SP	6
	Social-space work (field of study: Social Work)	D3 SA	6
	Social-space work (field of study: Social Pedagogy)	D3 SP	6
Practical training	Practical module 2, incl. elements accompanying the practical training (PRE5+6)	PM2	23
Written work and projects	Practical project	PP	4
	Bachelor's thesis, incl. bachelor's thesis colloquium (KO1)	BA	10

Compulsory elective modules

Focus areas (type I)	Abbreviation	ECTS
Professional challenges in light of the threatened/impaired integrity of individuals (concepts relating to the threatened/impaired integrity of individuals)	V1a	6
Professional challenges in the shaping of social organisations, spaces, networks and groups (communitarianisation problems as events that bring about the need for Social Work)	V2a	6
Professional challenges in connection with global, local and social transformations (social inequality and social policy)	V3a	6
Professional challenges in light of the threatened/impaired integrity of individuals (professional practice in the context of impaired/threatened integrity of individuals)	V1b	6
Professional challenges in the shaping of social organisations, spaces, networks and groups (strengthening communitarianisation through the shaping of social space)	V2b	6
Professional challenges in connection with global, local and social transformations (social transformation dynamics and migration)	V3b	6
Professional challenges in light of the threatened/impaired integrity of individuals (analysis of phenomena relating to the threatened/impaired integrity of individuals)	V1c	6
Professional challenges in the shaping of social organisations, spaces, networks and groups (Social Work as a moderator of civic commitment)	V2c	6
Professional challenges in connection with global, local and social transformations (global inequalities and development cooperation)	V3c	6

Specialist areas of Social Work (type II)

Social Work methods (various modules)	FM	Min. 12 ECTS
Social Pedagogy methods (various modules)	FM
Social Work theories and concepts (various modules)	TK
Law and (social) policy (various modules)	RE
Social and personal skills (various modules)	SK
Neighbouring disciplines and interdisciplinarity (various modules)	AD
Empirical research (various modules)	FO
Study skills	ST
Individual compulsory elective modules	ST
International aspects of Social Work (various modules)	IN

Interdisciplinary context modules (type III)

Interdisciplinary context studies (various modules)	IDKS	mind. 4 ECTS
---	------	--------------

Elective module

	Abkürzung	ECTS
Scientific work	WWA	2